

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

GARDEN CITY BOXING CLUB, INC.)
)
Plaintiff,) v.)
)	CV-06-6953
494 LATINO RESTAURANT INC.)
d/b/a LATINO RESTAURANT)
and LAURENTINO MENDEZ)
)
)
Defendants.)

PLAINTIFF'S MEMORANDUM OF LAW
IN SUPPORT OF REQUEST FOR JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT

Plaintiff, Garden City Boxing Club, by its attorneys, Paul J. Hooten & Associates, files this Memorandum of Law and says:

POSTURE OF THIS CASE

On June 4, 2007, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. filed suit against 494 Latino Restaurant, Inc.d/b/a Latino Restaurant and Laurentino Mendez. The lawsuit charged the Defendants with a violation of Section 705 of the Federal Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §605 (the "Statute").

Upon the failure of the Defendants, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc, to timely file an Answer or any other responsive pleading, the Plaintiff filed and requested that a default judgment be entered against the Defendants. Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a default judgment is appropriate.

Once a default judgment is entered, "it generally is treated as a conclusive and final adjudication of the issues necessary to justify the relief awarded and is given the same effect as between the parties as a judgment rendered after a trial on the merits." Wright,

Miller & Kane, Federal Practice and Procedure, §2684, p. 419-20. Therefore, all of the facts alleged in the Complaint should be considered as true and are binding on the Defendant. See Danning v. Lavine, 572 F.2d 1386, 1388 (9th Cir. 1978); Wright, §2688, p.444. Accordingly, the only issue remaining to be decided in this case is the amount of damages to which Plaintiff is entitled from the Defendant as a result of her violation of the Statute.

FACTS

Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. entered into a closed-circuit television license agreement (the "License Agreement") to exhibit the closed-circuit telecast of the June 5, 2004 Championship boxing match between Oscar De La Hoya and Felix Strum (the boxing match and all related bouts are collectively referred to as the "Event"), at closed-circuit locations such as theaters, arenas, bars, clubs, lounges, restaurants and the like throughout New York.

In the State of New York, the Event was legally available to the public only through very limited means. A commercial establishment, such as a bar, restaurant or lounge, could receive and broadcast the Event only after entering into a contractual agreement with Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. A residential cable subscriber could only obtain the Event by purchasing it for an additional fee through the subscriber's residential pay-per-view cable system.

The interstate satellite transmission of the Event was electronically coded or scrambled and was not intended for the use of the general public. If a commercial establishment was authorized by Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. to receive the Event, it was provided with the electronic decoding equipment and the satellite coordinates necessary to receive the signal. For an authorized residential pay-per-view customer to receive the Event, its cable system would "authorize" the residential converter to enable it to be capable of unscrambling the transmission.

The authorized commercial establishments which contracted with Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. were required to pay to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. sublicense fee. In addition, these establishments were contractually required to charge their patrons an admission fee for attending the exhibition of the Event.

The Defendant is the owner and/or operator of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant a commercial establishment located at 494 E. 138th Street, Bronx, NY 10454. On June 5, 2004, without authorization, the Defendant or agents, servants and/or employees of the Defendant intercepted and received or assisted in the interception and receipt of the transmission of the Event. They thereupon broadcast or assisted in the broadcast of the Event to the patrons of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant

On the night of the Event, Patricia Ferraro observed the Event being telecast to the patrons of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant . A copy of Patricia Ferraro affidavit is attached hereto as Exhibit A and incorporated herein by reference. While the Event was being broadcast in 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant , Patricia Ferraro observed that there were approximately fifty (50) patrons located on the premises. Patricia Ferraro, also handed a cease and desist letter to an agent of the Defendant.

As Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. maintained proprietary rights in the signal of the Event, all unlawful acts of interception, receipt and broadcast of the signal by the Defendant were in violation of Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. rights and caused Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. to suffer damages.

DAMAGES UNDER THE COMPLAINT

The Statute in General

The Statute provides inter alia that:

[n]o person not being authorized by the sender shall intercept any radio communication and divulge or publish the existence, contents, substance, purport, effect or meaning of such intercepted communication to any person. No person not being entitled thereto shall receive or assist in receiving any interstate or foreign communication by radio and use such communication (or any information therein contained) for his own benefit or for the benefit of another not entitled thereto.

47 U.S.C. §605(a). Thus, it protects against the theft of satellite communications such as the Event. See e.g., Cimenelli v. Cablevision, 583 F.Supp. 158, 161 (E.D.N.Y. 1984); Cablevision Systems Development Co. v. Annasonic Electronic Supply, No. CV-83-5189 (E.D.N.Y. February 10, 1984); Cablevision Systems Coup. v. DePalma, No. CV 87-3528 (E.D.N.Y. January 17, 1989); California Satellite Systems v. Seimon, 767 F.2d 1364 (1985); Quincy Cablesystems, Inc. v. Sully's Bar, Inc., 640 F.Supp. 1159 (D. Mass. 1986); National Subscription Television v. S & H TV, 644 F.2d 820 (9th Cir. 1981); National Football League v. Alley, Inc., 624 F.Supp. 6 (S.D. Fla. 1983). Accordingly, all acts of unlawful interception, receipt and broadcast of the signal of the Event were in violation of the Statute.

In order to deter the unlawful use of communications such as the Event, Congress specifically designed the Statute to provide "both Prosecutor[s] and civil plaintiffs [with] the legal tools they need to bring piracy under control." Trademark & Satellite Acts, P.L.-6678, 1988 U.S. Cong. & Admin. News 7, 5577, 5658; See U.S. v. Scott, 783 F.Supp. 280, 281 (N.D. Miss. 1992). Therefore, the Statute includes severe penalties, both civil and criminal, for those who intercept, receive and/or broadcast protected communications. See Scott, 783 F.Supp. at 281; See generally §605(e).¹ Moreover, Congress has equated a violation of the Statute to theft of service. See 1988 U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News. 7, 5577, 5642-43. In 1988, in an effort to further deter theft, Congress amended the Statute to provide for more severe penalties for violations. Id. at 5657.

Accordingly, a party aggrieved under the Statute may recover statutory damages of up to $10,000.00 for each violation thereof. §605(e)(3)(C)(i)(II). Moreover, if the Court finds that the violation of the Statute was committed "willfully and for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private financial gain..." the Court may award additional damages of up to $100,000.00 for each violation. §605(e)(3)(C)(ii). Furthermore, a Court shall award full costs, including reasonably attorneys' fees. §605(e)(3)(B)(iii). Because Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. constitutes an aggrieved party under the Statute, see §605(D)(6), Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is entitled to damages from the Defendant for her unlawful acts.

It is obvious that the Defendant's interception, receipt and broadcast of the Event was not innocent. Section 605(e)(3)(C)(iii) provides for limited damages to the aggrieved party "[i]n any case where the court finds that the violator was not aware and had no reason to believe that his acts constituted a violation of this section..." However, as stated by Congress, this type of situation occurs rarely,

[i]t is not intended that this provision serve in any way as a defense to a determination of liability under subsection (a), but rather only as a provision to be exercised in the court's discretion for those rare instances of ignorance of the law on the part of one adjudged to have violated it.

Cable Communications Policy Act, P.L. 98-549, 5 U.S. Cong. News. '84 Bd. Vol. 8, 4745,

¹ The criminal penalties include fines and imprisonment. See §605(e)(1) and (e)(2).

4751. Clearly, this was not the instant situation.

As 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant is a commercial establishment, it could not have obtained the transmission or the Event had the Defendant not undertaken specific wrongful actions to intercept and/or receive and broadcast the telecast. In order for an unauthorized commercial establishment to receive a broadcast such as the Event, there must be some wrongful action, such as using an unauthorized decoder, obtaining cable service and illegally altering the cable service to bring the signal of the Event into the establishment or moving an unauthorized decoder from its authorized location to the establishment. Because the Defendant must have committed wrongful acts in order to intercept and/or receive and broadcast the Event, there is no basis for limiting Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. relief to the $10,000 provided for in §605(e)(3)(C)(i).

Statutory Damages Under §605(e)(3)(C)(i)(II)

As its first basis for relief, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is requesting statutory damages pursuant to §605(e)(3)(C)(i)(II). See Cable/Home Communication Corp. v. Network Productions, Inc., 902 F.2d 829, 850 (11th Cir. 1990)² Pursuant to the Statute, the amount of statutory damages to which Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is entitled for the violation shall be not less than $1,000.00 and not more than $10,000.00.

For the reasons set forth, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. believes it is entitled to full statutory damages in the amount of $10,000.00 for the violation of the Statute.

As stated supra, on June 5, 2004, the Defendant or agents, servants and/or employees of the Defendant intercepted and received or assisted in the interception and receipt of the live telecast of the Event. They then broadcast or assisted in the broadcast of the Event to the patrons at 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant for viewing therein. The patrons at 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant purchased meals and/or drinks while viewing the Event. The patrons whom the Defendant permitted without authorization to view the Event would otherwise only have been able to view the Event at a commercial establishment by paying an admittance fee at an establishment authorized by Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. to receive the transmission.

² It is in the Plaintiff's discretion whether to elect to receive actual or statutory damages. Id.

The Defendant broadcast the Event to the patrons at 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant without paying any sublicense fees to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. To date, no amount has been paid to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. to compensate it for the illegal broadcast of the Event in 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant .

Statutory damages are appropriate where actual damages are difficult to prove. Lauratex Textile Corp. v. Allton Knitting Mills, Inc., 519 F.Supp. 730, 732 (S.D.N.Y. 1981); Lottie Jonlin Thomas Trust v. Crown Publishers, Inc., 592 F.2d 651, 657 (2d Cir. 1978). The lack of adequate proof of any particular element causes the Court to rely, within its discretion, on the statutory limitations. F.W. Woolworth Co. v. Contemporary Arts, Inc., 344 U.S. 228, 233 (1952). In the instant case, as more fully discussed infra, it would be impossible to determine the full extent of the profits lost by Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. and the additional damages sustained by Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. as a result of the Defendant's unlawful actions.

Accordingly, it is appropriate for Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. to elect to receive statutory damages.

Because the Statute defining statutory damage awards for violations of the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. §101 et seq. (the "Copyright Act") is similar to the Statute, its case law is instructive for the determination of the amount of statutory damages to which Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is entitled.³

According to the United States Supreme Court, when determining the applicable statutory damage award under the Copyright Act, the amount of profits lost by the copyright holder is not the only criteria for a Court to consider. Woolworth, 344 U.S. at 233. Rather, a rule of liability which merely takes away the profits from an infringement would offer little discouragement to infringers. It would fall short of an effective sanction for enforcement of the copyright policy. The statutory rule, formulated after long experience, not merely compels restitution of profit and reparation for injury but also is designed to discourage wrongful conduct. The discretion of the court is wide enough to permit a resort to statutory damages for such purposes. Even for uninjurious and unprofitable invasions of copyright the court may, if it deems it just, impose a liability within statutory limits to sanction and vindicate the statutory policy.

Id. at 233.

Statutory damages under the Copyright Act should serve to compensate the copyright owners and to provide a detriment to would be infringers. Lottie Joplin Thomas Trust, 592 F.2d at 657; Lauratex, 519 F. Supp. at 732. Factors to consider in determining a statutory damage award include: (1) "the market value of the rights infringed", (2) "the

³ 17 U.S.C. §504(c)(1) provides as follows:

Statutory damages. (1) Except as provided by clause (2) of this subsection, the copyright owner may elect, at any time before final judgment is rendered, to recover, instead of actual damages and profits, an award of statutory damages for all infringements involved in the action, with respect to any one work, for which any one infringer is liable individually, or for which any two or more infringers are liable jointly and severally, in a sum not less than $500 or more than $20,000 as the court considers just.

revenue lost by the plaintiff and profits gained by the defendant", (3) the infringers state of mind" and (4) "deterrence of future infringement: Basic Books, Inc. v. Kinko's Graphics Corp., 758 F.Supp. 1522, 1544 (S.D.N.Y. 1991).

The sublicense fees which Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. charges to an authorized commercial establishment are based upon specific factors, including the capacity of the bar. The Patricia Ferraro affidavit establishes that the capacity of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant is unknown, however there were fifty (50) patrons in the establishment at the time the fight was being broadcasted. See Exhibit A. Thus, based on its capacity, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. would have requested from 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant a sublicense fee of approximately $600.00 in order to authorize it to broadcast the Event.

Applying the Courts' analysis from its decisions under the Copyright Act, in the instant case, the lost income from the sale of the Event to 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant represents only a starting place for the determination of the amount of damages to which Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is entitled for the Defendant's wrongful acts.

When Congress enacted the Statute, it was specifically cognizant of the problems of theft of various wire communications, including closed-circuit programming, such as the Event. As stated in the House Bill:

The Committee is extremely concerned with a problem which is increasingly plaguing the cable industry-the theft cable service. This problem has taken on many forms from the manufacture and sale of equipment intended to permit reception of cable services without paying for it, to apartment building dwellers "tapping" into cable system wire in a building's hallway that issued for providing service to a neighbor's apartment unit, to the sale by building superintendents of cable converters left behind by previous tenants to new tenants. Such practices does not only often permit one to obtain cable service without paying the installation and hookup costs, but also, for instance, involve individuals gaining access to premium movie and sports channels without paying for the receipt of those services.

Theft of services deprives the cable industry of millions of dollars of revenue each year which it should otherwise be receiving. The Committee believes that theft of cable service poses a major threat to the economic viability of cable operators and cable programmers, and creates unfair burdens on cable subscribers who are forced to subsidize the benefits that other individuals are getting by receiving cable service without paying for it.

Cable Communications Policy Act of 1984, House Report No. 98-934, 5 U.S. Cong. News. '84 Bd. Vol. -6, 4655, 4720. Moreover, according to Congress, these incidents threaten to undermine the satellite industry and adversely impact legitimate satellite dealers and satellite programmers who otherwise would be receiving payment for their programming or descrambling devices. See, U.S. v. Scott, 783 F.Supp. 280, 281 (N.D. Miss. 1992) (quoting 1984 U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News 4655, 4746).

The impact of theft of this type is far-reaching throughout the entertainment industry. According to the Office of Cable Signal Theft of the National Cable Television Association, the cable industry loses an estimated 3 Billion Dollars annually as a result of the theft of cable signals. Cable Piracy Fact Sheet. Not only do these acts of theft cause legitimate businesses to lose money, but they also weaken the cable signal, thereby adversely affecting the quality of the picture received by authorized users. Id.

Theft has also adversely impacted the movie industry. Theft of American movies and television programming, including satellite and cable television programming, has increased 27% since 1990. News Release, March 18, 1992, Motion Picture Export Association of America, Inc. ("MPEAA"). According to Jack Valenti, MPEAA's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, "[p]iracy is the single biggest problem facing the motion picture industry today". Id. These thefts cost the industry over 1.2 Billion Dollars annually. Id.

Similarly, the unauthorized interception, receipt and broadcast of the Event and other closed-circuit programming threatens the viability of the closed-circuit industry. There are no countervailing social or policy considerations which justify the unauthorized interception of these broadcasts. Cf., ON/TV of Chicago v. Julien, 763 F.2d 839, 843 (7th Cir. 1985); Subscription Television of Greater Washington v. Kaufman, 606 F.Supp. 1540, 1544 (D.D.C. 1985).

In addition to the lost revenue which would have been derived from the delivery and exhibition of the Event to 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant and its patrons, Garden City boxing Club, Inc. should receive additional compensation to account for any profits gained by the Defendant for meals and/or drinks sold to the patrons as a indirect result of her unlawful acts. Moreover, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. should be further compensated as it has been deprived of the "value, benefits and profits derived" from the unauthorized broadcast of the Event to 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant and its patrons as well as the value of "business investment, business opportunities and goodwill." See American Television and Communications Corp. v. Floken, Ltd., 629 F.Supp. 1462, 1466 (M.D. Fla. 1986). As a result of theft by the Defendants and others, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. has lost and will continue to lose as customers legitimate commercial establishments which are unwilling and financially unable to compete with those unauthorized commercial establishments, such as 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant, which steal sports and other closed-circuit programming. Because these unauthorized commercial establishments offer the stolen programming to their patrons for no fee or for a fee which is less than the authorized establishments are required to charge, the legitimate commercial establishments with the right to broadcast closed-circuit programming can not attract paying customers. As a result, the authorized commercial establishments fail to recover the sublicense fees paid, suffer the loss of patrons and incur financial loss. When the unauthorized commercial establishment advertises the availability of the stolen programming, the number of patrons at the unauthorized commercial establishment increases and, as a result, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. and the authorized commercial establishments suffer additional losses.

Theft of closed-circuit broadcasts, such as the Event, by unauthorized commercial establishments, such as 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant, adversely affects both Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. and its customers. Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. pays substantial fees to obtain the right to sublicense the broadcast of closed-circuit programming to authorized commercial establishments. Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. primary source of revenue is the sublicense fees which it charges to authorized commercial establishments for the right to broadcast closed-circuit sports and entertainment programming such as the Event.

Clearly, the Defendant's actions have the potential to erode the base of Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. customers. Each patron of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant, is lost as a future patron of authorized broadcasts. See Cox Cable Cleveland Area, Inc. v. King, 582 F.Supp. 376, 381 (E.D. Ohio 1983). But for the Defendant's unauthorized broadcast of the Event, all or some of the patrons of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant would have become paying patrons and directly increased the fees paid to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. by its authorized commercial establishments.

Further, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. has suffered damage to its goodwill and reputation and loss of its right and ability to control and receive fees for the transmission of the Event. See Quincy Cablesystems, Inc., 640 F.Supp. at 1161. When negotiating sublicense fees, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. generally represents to legitimate commercial establishments the locations of other authorized commercial establishments licensed to receive the programming. Therefore, when an unauthorized commercial establishment intercepts, receives and broadcasts closed-circuit programming, such as the Event, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. reputation and goodwill suffers from what appears like a misrepresentation. Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. should receive compensation from the Defendant for these losses suffered. Furthermore, an incalculable element of damages is the ill-will and possible loss of future business from legitimate commercial establishments which refuse to pay sublicense fees because they cannot compete with unauthorized commercial establishments which steal closed-circuit programming, such as the Event.

The continued viability of Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. as a business concern depends upon the willingness and ability of legitimate commercial establishments to pay sublicense fees for the right to broadcast closed-circuit sports and entertainment programming, such as the Event. If such programming is made available to the public for no fee at unauthorized commercial establishments which have not purchased the right to broadcast such programming, legitimate commercial establishments will find no reason to purchase the right to legally broadcast this type of programming.

Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is operating a legitimate business of the type that Congress specifically sought to protect. That protection, however, is threatened by the Defendant's actions. This Court must use the full power of the Statute to punish the Defendant for her acts of theft. If rampant theft of service is allowed to go unpunished and Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. and similar distributors of protected communications continue to suffer losses as a result of the theft, these businesses could be forced to curtail distribution of this programming, thereby depriving the people of the State of New York of the ability to view these sports and entertainment events.

The arguments set forth herein are also applicable in supporting damages under 47 U.S.C. §553(c)(3)(A)(ii) in the amount of $10,000.00.

_____ Given the benefits which the Defendant received from the broadcasts of the Event and given the additional damages which Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. has suffered, it is fair and reasonable to assess against the Defendant and award to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. statutory damages in the amount of $10,000.00, pursuant to §553(c)(3)(A)(ii) and $10,000.00 under 605(e)(3)(C)(i)(II). Clearly, given the wrongfulness of the Defendant's acts and the losses suffered by Garden City Boxing Club, Inc., it is entitled to these damages.

Damages for Willful Act Under §605(e)(3)(C)(ii)

_____ As its second basis for relief, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. requesting damages pursuant to §553(c)(3)(B) and 605(e)(3)(c)(ii) because the Defendant's actions were willful and "for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private financial gain". In ON/TV of Chicago v. Julien, 763 F.2d 839, 844 (7th Cir. 1985), the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit interpreted willful under the Statute as "disregard for the governing statute and an indifference to its requirements". Id. at 844 (quoting TransWorld Airlines, Inc. v. Thurston, 469 U.S. 111, 127 (1985)).

As set forth supra, because of the absence of any way in which the Defendant could have "innocently" accessed the broadcast of the Event, It is apparent that she specifically and willfully acted to illegally intercept the transmissions of the Event for her commercial advantage. Moreover, as set forth supra, after Patricia Ferraro, witnessed the Event being broadcast in 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant , she handed a cease and desist letter to the Defendant's agent which stated that the broadcast was illegal and should cease.

Clearly, the Defendant's actions indicate disregard of and indifference to the Statute. The Defendant knew that it was wrong to receive, intercept and divert the cable service and the Event and to broadcast it in 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant . Similarly, the Defendant knew that her actions were unlawful particularly after receiving the case and desist letter, yet, with total disregard for the Statute. She nevertheless intercepted and received the transmission and broadcast it to the patrons of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant. Accordingly, because the Defendant's actions were willful, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is entitled to additional damages.

The Copyright Act provides this court with a further basis for finding that the Defendant's actions were willful. Here too, because the Statute related to damages for willful violations of the Copyright Act is similar to the Statute, the Copyright Act is again instructive for the instant case.⁴

⁴ The Copyright Act provides as follows:

(2) In a case where...court finds, that infringement was committed wilfully, the court in its discretion may increase the award of statutory damages to a sum of not more than $100,000. 17 U.S.C. §504(c)(2).

In Fitzgerald Publishing Co., Inc. v. Baylor Publishing Co., Inc., 807 F.2d 1110 (2d Cir. 1986), aff'd., 862 F.2d 304 (1988) the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit analyzed the criteria for determining whether actions constitute willful conduct. According to the Court, "a defendant's knowledge that its actions constitute an infringement [of the Copyright Act] establishes that the defendant acted willfully" within the meaning of the Copyright Act. Id. at 1115; Fallaci v. New Gazette Literacy Corp., 568 F.Supp. 1172, 1173 (S.D.N.Y. 1983) (citing 3 Nimmer on Copyright, §14.04 [B][3], at 14-27, 14-28 (1982)). There is no need to prove malice or actual knowledge in order to establish a willful violation; constructive knowledge is sufficient. See Fitzgerald, 807 F.2d at 1115; Cable/Home, 902 F.2d at 851. In the instant case, the Defendant's actual knowledge that her acts were wrongful should be sufficient to demonstrate that her acts were willful.

It is patently obvious that the Defendant's actions were "for the purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private financial gain." §605(e)(3)(C)(ii). As stated by Congress,

[i]t is further intended that the term "direct or indirect commercial advantage or private financial gain" be interpreted broadly by both the courts in deciding actions, and the Department of Justice in pursuing actions, under this section. Those who willfully violate subsection (a) and directly or indirectly enjoy commercial gain from those violations, may be reached.

Cable Communications Policy Act, P.L. 98-549, 5 U.S. Cong. News. '84 Bd. Vol.-8, 4745, 4750.

Because the Event was broadcast to the patrons of 494 Latino Restaurant Inc., d/b/a Latino Restaurant, the Defendant's purpose and intent in exhibiting the Event was to secure a private financial gain and direct commercial advantage by misappropriating Garden City

Boxing Club, Inc. licensed exhibitions and infringing upon Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. rights, while avoiding proper payment to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc.

By interpreting the statutory language broadly as directed by Congress, the Court must find that the Defendant's actions were for her commercial gain as set forth in the Statute. Accordingly, as the Defendant's actions were willful and for commercial advantage, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is entitled to additional damages under the Statute.

Generally, it is reasonable to increase an actual or statutory damages award by a specific percentage to penalize the Defendants for willful acts. See e.g. Lauratex, 519 F.Supp. at 733 (an increase of seven times the actual damages for willful acts); Cablevision Systems Corp. v. Maxie's North Shore Deli Corp., 1991 WL 58350, No. CV 88 2834 (ASC) (E.D.N.Y. 1991) (the court awarded five times the statutory damages for willful violations); Cable/Home, 902 F.2d 829 (additional damages of five times actual damages for willful conduct).

As a willful violator of this Statute, the Defendant must be held accountable for a substantial amount above the market value of the sublicense fees to broadcast the Event. Otherwise, other commercial establishments "would be encouraged to violate the law knowing the full extent of their liability would not exceed what they would have to pay for a license on the open market." Fallaci, 568 F.Supp. at 1174).

Under the Copyright Act, "when the infringement is willful, 'deterrence of future violations is a legitimate consideration' because 'defendants must not be able to sneer in the fact of copyright owners and copyright laws'." Cable/Home, 902 F.2d at 851 (quoting International Korwin Corp. v. Kowalczyk, 855 F.2d 375, 383 (7th Cir. 1988); See also Chi-Boy Music v. Charlie Club, Incorporated, 930 F.2d 1224, 1230 (7th Cir. 1991). Similarly, in the instant case, the award of additional damages must be sufficiently significant to deter the Defendant and other unauthorized commercial establishments from stealing protected communications.

Accordingly, it is proper for this Court to award to Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. additional damages in the amount of $30,000.00 (three times the statutory damages) to compensate it for the Defendant's willful acts in connection with the event.

Attorneys' Fees and Costs

As its third basis for relief, Garden City Boxing Club, Inc. is requesting payment for its attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to §605(e)(3)(B)(iii). Pursuant to the Statute, said award is mandatory. Section 605(e)(3)(B)(iii) states, "(the Court... shall direct the recovery of full costs, including awarding reasonable attorneys' fees..." See Maxie's, 1991 WL 58350, No. CV 88 2834.

CONCLUSION

The need for substantial awards to compensate those aggrieved under the Statute and to deter the Defendant and similar individuals and entities has already been recognized in this jurisdiction and other jurisdictions. For the reasons set forth herein, the Plaintiff respectfully requests the aforesaid relief.

Respectfully submitted,

BY: /s/ Paul J. Hooten
Paul J. Hooten, Esq.
5505 Nesconset Hwy, Suite 203
Mt. Sinai, NY 11766
631-331-0547

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I HEREBY CERTIFY that on this 24th day of July, 2007, a copy of the foregoing Memorandum of Law and proposed Order was sent by U.S. Mail to:

494 Latino Restaurant Inc..
d/b/a Latino Restaurant
494 E. 138th Street.
Bronx, NY 10454

Laurentino Mendez
522 E. 138th Street
Bronx, NY 10454

/s/ Paul J. Hooten
Paul J. Hooten, Esquire
Paul J. Hooten & Associates
5505 Nesconset Hwy., Suite 203
Mt. Sinai, NY 11766

HS:MYFILES\FORMS\PLEADINGS\MEMOLAW.DFJ